

Katerina Vogka

Katerina Vogka joined our team in January 2020. She holds a bachelor's degree in Law from the University of Athens and is currently studying for her master's degree in Civil Law and Modern Financial Transactions.

Katerina undertakes legal research, mostly in civil and criminal matters and personal data protection issues, translations of legal documents, and the preparation of affidavits and court documents.

Qualifications

- LLB, School of Law, University of Athens